

EUSAAT Virtual Seminar Series 2021

Upcoming lectures on June 24 – 5:00 PM CEST

“Boredom in laboratory mice - measurements and cures”

Lars Lewejohann - Head of Unit Laboratory Animal Science and Professor for Refinement

German Federal Institute for Risk Assessment and Freie Universität Berlin

5:00 – 5:30 PM

“Mice roaming in a semi-naturalistic environment”

Paul Mieske - PhD student

German Federal Institute for Risk Assessment

“Preference for different enrichment items from a mouse's point of view”

Ute Hobbiesiefken - PhD student

German Federal Institute for Risk Assessment

“Lock box - cognitive enrichment for laboratory mice”

Katharina Hohlbaum - Postdoctoral scientist

Freie Universität Berlin

5:30 – 6:30 PM

Upcoming lectures on July 8

Heike Walles: “Diverse and complex human skin models and their biomedical application”

Anna Koncz: “Application of cardiomyocyte cell lines as models for heart diseases”

Free Participation

Please sign up by sending your name, e-mail, affiliation and career stage to eusaatvirtualeminarseries2021@gmail.com.