

EPAA progress and successes in 3Rs for biologicals

Catrina Sterling

The presentation will provide a brief background to EPAA and the cover the successes from the vaccine/biological projects. This will include a background to the vaccine consistency project and the successful projects on human rabies vaccines and clostridium septicum from that project.

A summary of the IMI2 VAC2VAC project which has been a follow on from the EPAA project and an overview of the international harmonization in biologicals project. The summary will show the progress being made and discuss they challenge still remaining.